

UNITED AIRLINES PILOT RECRUITING

Flight Time Requirements

- Minimum of 1,000 hours of fixed-wing turbine time

Applicants invited to interview will be asked to provide documentation of all flight experience. When reviewing flight time, consideration will be given to quality, quantity, and recency of experience.

Certification Requirements

- Current FAA first-class medical certificate
- FCC Restricted Radiotelephone operator's license
- Unrestricted FAA ATP certificate with airplane multiengine class rating

General Requirements

- Legal right to work in the United States
- Current Passport
- Bachelor's degree from accredited school is preferred
- High School diploma or GED equivalent at a minimum

Additional Information:

- 10,000 applications currently on file
 - 5,300+ = Average total flight time of applicants
 - 2,700 = Average PIC time of applicants
 - 4,500 = Average Turbine time of applicants